WHO IS THE GOD OF THE BIBLE?

By Jeannette Musselman

Who is the God of the Bible?

By Jeannette Musselman

Printed in Canada

All scriptures are taken from the NIV bible unless otherwise stated.

All rights reserved solely by the author. The author guarantees all contents are original and do not infringe on the legal rights of any other person or work. No part of this book may be reproduced in any form without the permission of the author.

Scripture quotations taken from the Holy Bible, New International Version (NIV). Copyright 1973, 1978, 1984, 2011 by International Bible Society. Used by permission of Zondervan Publishing House. All rights reserved.

Scripture quotations taken from the King James Version (KJV) – public domain.

Who is the God of the Bible?

Did you know that Jesus, who came to earth in the body of a human being, is God? Please allow me to lead you to some scriptures that prove that Jesus is God. It is so important for us to understand and believe that Jesus is God who came in the flesh for this is truth that will protect us from believing a lie and from the spirit of anti-Christ. Some people come across as spiritual but they do not believe that Jesus is God. They only believe that He was a good man. If He was only a good man, He could not take away our sins. If He was only a good man, He could not make us righteous. He had to be God in order to do this.

In my childhood and early adult years, I was raised in a Church that taught the Trinity. God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit and they are One. One day, after I had become a born again Christian, some people came to my door and they brought confusion to me. They didn't believe in the Trinity and they didn't believe that Jesus was God. They said He was only a good man. After speaking to them I wanted to see for myself what God's Word had to say about the Trinity so I asked God to show me. About a half an hour later I began reading His Word and that very day He began to show me the Trinity in the Bible and over the next couple of years He showed me scriptures from Genesis to Revelation that reveals the Trinity and proves that Jesus is God. Although I have been shown many scriptures, here are just a few scriptures that the Holy Spirit enlightened my mind with while I was reading the Word of God. I pray that the Holy Spirit will also enlighten your mind too and give you understanding that Jesus is God so that you will never question this again.

Notice that God says in these next two scriptures that He is the Alpha and Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. All three of these phrases mean the same thing.

"This is what the Lord says – Israel's King and Redeemer, the Lord Almighty. I am the first and I am the last; apart from me there is no God" (Isaiah 44:6, emphasis added).

"He who was seated on the throne said, "I am making everything new!"

Then he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true." He said to me: "It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End*" (Revelation 21:5–6b, emphasis added).*

In the first scripture, God is saying that He is the First and the Last and that there is no God but Him.

In the second scripture, God is also speaking here. He was sitting on His throne and He said: "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End".

Notice in this next scripture that Jesus says He is the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. We know that Jesus is the One the scriptures refer to as "coming again".

"Behold, I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give to everyone according to what he has done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End*" (Revelation 22:12-13, emphasis added).*

We know that He who is the First and the Last is God. Jesus says He is the First and the Last. Jesus is telling us that He is God.

Now let's look further into the Word to see another truth about who our Savior is.

"But I am the Lord your God*, who brought you out of Egypt.* You shall acknowledge no God but me, no Savior except me*" (Hosea 13:4, emphasis added).*

In this scripture, God is identifying Himself by saying that He is God and that

He is our Savior and that there is no Savior except Him.

Now let's look at this next scripture.

"But when the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior" (Titus 3:4-6, emphasis added).

God says in Hosea 13:4 above that there is no Savior but Him and in Titus 3:6, also above, Jesus Christ is identified as our Savior.

*"And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world" (1 John 4:14, emphasis added).

This scripture also attests to Jesus as our Savior. Since God is the only Savior of the world and Jesus came as our Savior, that makes Him God.

Let's continue with yet another truth about who our Judge is.

"You have come to thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly, to the Church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven. You have come to God, the judge of all men*, to the spirits of righteous men made perfect" (Hebrews 12:22b-23, emphasis added).*

Now the above scripture identifies God as the Judge of all men.

"There is only one Lawgiver and Judge, the one who is able to save and destroy" (James 4:12a, emphasis added).

This scripture says that there is only one Judge.

Now let's look closely at this next scripture.

"In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I give you this charge" (2 Timothy 4:1, emphasis added).

Did you notice this scripture refers to God and Christ Jesus who will judge? This appears to be plural but then the scripture goes on to say "in view of his appearing and his kingdom". "His" is singular. We already established that there is only one Judge and that Judge is God. This scripture identifies Jesus Christ as God and as our Judge.

Now let's look at another truth about God's Son.

God the Father is speaking in this next scripture and look closely at what He says about His Son and who He calls His Son.

"But about the Son he says, "Your throne, O God, will last forever and ever, and righteousness will be the scepter of your kingdom. You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has set you above your companions by anointing you with the oil of joy" (Hebrews 1:8-9, emphasis added).

God the Father refers to Jesus as God. He says "Your throne, O God". He identifies Jesus as God. In Verse 9 He refers to both Himself and Jesus as God by saying "therefore God (referring to Jesus), your God (referring to Himself) has set you above your companions".

Isn't it exciting to see Jesus' deity so clearly in scripture?

After Jesus rose from the dead and appeared to Thomas, look at who Thomas calls Jesus.

"Thomas said to him, "My Lord and my God!" (John 20:28, emphasis added).

Thomas did not believe the other apostles when they told him that they saw Jesus. He doubted them. But when Jesus appeared to Thomas, Thomas exclaims "My Lord and my God!". There is an exclamation mark after these words. Thomas called Jesus his Lord and his God. He received a revelation right there and then that Jesus is God.

Now let's look at another truth about the King of kings and Lord of lords.

"I charge you to keep this commandment without spot or blame until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, which God will bring about in his own time – God, the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings and Lord of lords" (1 Timothy 6:14-15, emphasis added).

Would you say that a King is a Ruler? Yes, of course, a King is a Ruler. This scripture says that God is the only Ruler and then He identifies Himself as the King of kings and Lord of lords.

Notice in the following scripture that Jesus is identified as the King of kings and Lord of lords.

"They will make war against the Lamb (we know that the Lamb refers to Jesus), but the Lamb will overcome them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings – and with him will be his called, chosen and faithful followers" (Revelation 17:14, emphasis and parenthesis added).

Let's look at another truth about the Great I AM.

"God said to Moses, "I AM who I AM. This is what you are to say to the Israelites: I AM has sent me to you" (Exodus 3:14, emphasis added).

Moses asked God what he should say to the Israelites when they asked what His Name was. God told Moses to tell them, "I AM".

Look at this next scripture.

"I tell you the truth, Jesus answered, before Abraham was born, I am!" (John 8:58, emphasis added).

Did you notice the exclamation mark at the end of this scripture? Jesus was emphasizing and identifying Himself as the great "I AM". He says that before Abraham was, He was. Well, we all know that Jesus was physically born after Abraham but He says in this scripture that before Abraham was, He was and He calls Himself "I AM". In other words, He always was. He didn't just come into existence when He was born of Mary. He has always been because He is God.

*"I am telling you now before it happens (Jesus is speaking here about His upcoming crucifixion.), so that when it does happen you will believe that I am

He" (John 13:19, emphasis and parenthesis added).*

Jesus is identifying Himself as God. Can you see that?

Let's look at another truth about who we are to worship.

Notice in the following scriptures that God alone is to be worshipped.

"Do not worship any other god, for the Lord, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God" (Exodus 34:14, emphasis added).

"You shall have no foreign god among you; you shall not bow down to an alien god" (Psalm 81:9, emphasis added).

Notice in the following scripture that God instructs the angels to worship Jesus.

“And again, when God brings his firstborn into the world, he says, “Let all God’s angels worship him” (Hebrews 1:6, emphasis added).

Notice in the following scriptures that Jesus is worshipped.

“On coming to the house, they saw the child with his mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshipped him” (Matthew 2:11a, emphasis added).

“Where is the one who has been born King of the Jews? We saw his star in the east and have come to worship him” (Matthew 2:2, emphasis added).

“Then those who were in the boat worshipped him, saying, “Truly, you are the Son of God” (Matthew 14:33, emphasis added).

“Suddenly Jesus met them, “Greetings” he said. They came to him, clasped his feet and worshipped him” (Matthew 28:9).

Let’s look at another truth about the forgiveness of our sins.

“When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven”. Now some teachers of the law were sitting there, thinking to themselves, “Why does this fellow talk like that? He’s blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?” (Mark 2:5–7, emphasis added).

First of all, we see from this scripture that only God can forgive sins. We also see that Jesus told the paralytic that his sins were forgiven. The teachers of the law (those who were very familiar with the Old Testament) were so upset with Jesus' statement to this paralytic because they knew that only God could forgive sins. Jesus was identifying Himself as God by forgiving this man's sins and this is what made the teachers of the law so angry with him as they thought He was blaspheming God by this statement.

Notice in the following scripture that it is the Holy Spirit who says "Their sins and lawless acts I will remember no more". In other words, this scripture says that the Holy Spirit also forgives sins. Also, notice in this next scripture that the Holy Spirit identifies Himself as God by saying that He made a covenant with them and He put His laws in their hearts and wrote them on their minds. He identifies Himself as "Lord". This scripture is packed with truths that the Holy Spirit is God so look closely as you read it.

"The Holy Spirit also testifies to us about this. First he (the Holy Spirit) says: "This is the covenant I will make with them after that time", says the Lord. "I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds." Then he adds: "Their sins and lawless acts I will remember no more" (Hebrews 10:15–16, emphasis and parenthesis added).

Notice in the following scriptures that God the Lord gives life.

"This is what God the Lord says – he who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and all that comes out of it, who gives breath to its people and life to those who walk on it" (Isaiah 42:5, emphasis added).

"And the Lord God formed man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life and man become a living being" (Genesis 2:7, emphasis added).

Notice in the following scripture that Jesus came to give life.

"I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full" (John 10:10b, emphasis added).

Notice in the following scripture that Jesus is the bread of life.

"Then Jesus declared, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry and he who believes in me will never be thirsty" (John 6:35, emphasis added).

Notice in the following scripture that Jesus is the life.

"Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me" (John 14:6, emphasis added).

Notice in the following scripture that Jesus is the author of life.

"You killed the author of life, but God raised him from the dead. We are witnesses of this" (Acts 3:15, emphasis added).

Notice in the following scripture that the Holy Spirit gives life.

"He has made us competent as ministers of a new covenant – not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life" (2 Corinthians 3:6, emphasis added).

Now let's look at some scriptures that refer to the Trinity.

"In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth" (Genesis 1:1, emphasis added).

Notice in this next scripture the singular God, then notice the plural God by the words "us" and "our".

"Then God (singular) said, "Let us (plural) make man in our image, in our likeness" (Genesis 1:26a, emphasis and parenthesis added).

From the above two scriptures, we see that it was God who created the heavens and the earth and it was God who created man.

In verse 26 that you just read God refers to Himself as plural and in verse 27 below He refers to Himself as singular.

"So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them" (Genesis 1:27, emphasis added).

Notice again in the next scripture the plural in the word "us" and the singular in the word "Lord". Remember we are talking about the Trinity here.

"Come, let us (plural) go down and confuse their language so they will not understand each other. So the Lord (singular) scattered them from there over all the earth and they stopped building the city" (Genesis 11:7-8, emphasis and parenthesis added).

So we see from these scriptures that God refers to Himself as both singular and plural. Remember it was God (both singular and plural) who created man.

This next scripture refers to Jesus who is the head of the body, the church and who is the firstborn from among the dead.

"For by him (that's Jesus) all things (this includes man) were created*: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities;* all things were created by him (that's Jesus) and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead so that in everything he might have the supremacy" (Colossians 1:16-18, emphasis and parenthesis added).

So we see that Jesus created all things. He created man as well as all things. We read in Genesis 1:1 above that God created the heavens and the earth and in Genesis 1:26 that God made man. God said, "Let us make man in our image". Jesus was present with the Father when all things were created.

In this next scripture, you will see that the Holy Spirit also created man.

"The Spirit of God has made me (Job is speaking here); the breath of the Almighty gives me life" (Job 33:4, emphasis and parenthesis added).

Job is saying that the Holy Spirit created him and then he says that the Almighty gave him breath. We know that God is the Almighty One. So this scripture tells us that the Holy Spirit is God and He created Job (man). You just read in Genesis 1:26a "God said, Let us make man in our image". We see here that "us" refers to God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, yet they are One.

Let's look at some more scriptures that refer to the Trinity: God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit.

"Who have been chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through the sanctifying work of the Spirit, for obedience to Jesus Christ and sprinkling by his blood. Grace and peace to you in abundance (1 Peter 1:2, emphasis added).

"As soon as Jesus (we see Jesus) was baptized, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened, and he saw the Spirit of God (we see the Spirit) descending like a dove and lighting on him. And a voice from heaven (this is the Father's voice) said "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased" (Matthew 3:16-17, emphasis and parenthesis added).

"For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the word (which is Jesus), and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one" (1 John 5:7, KJV, emphasis and parenthesis added).

Notice in the next scripture that the Holy Spirit is referred to as a person by the words "he" and "his" throughout. Also, notice that the Holy Spirit speaks and hears. Some people think that the Holy Spirit is only a force (like the wind). Can the wind speak? Can the wind hear? Can the wind forgive sins? Can the wind guide us?

"But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears and he will tell you what is yet to come" (John 16:13, emphasis added).

This scripture says that the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Truth. John 14:6 says that Jesus is the way, the Truth and the life. We see that both the Holy Spirit and Jesus are Truth. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Jesus. They are One, just like we are one with our own spirit.

"For through him (this is talking about Jesus) we both have access to the Father by one Spirit" (Ephesians 2:18, emphasis and parenthesis added).

This scripture tells us there is only one Spirit. It also tells us that through Jesus we have access to the Father by that one Spirit. The Father and Jesus have the same Spirit. There is only one Spirit and that Spirit is the Spirit of the Father and the Spirit of Jesus.

"You, however, are controlled not by the sinful nature but by the Spirit, if the Spirit of God (referring to the Spirit of the Father) lives in you. And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Christ" (Romans 8:9, emphasis and parenthesis added).

This scripture refers to the Spirit of God and the Spirit of Christ. They are one.

Can you see all three persons of the Trinity here?

"While they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said*, "Set apart for* me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them" (Acts 13:2, emphasis added).

Now, these people were praying to the Lord, and the Holy Spirit spoke to them and said to set apart for Him Barnabas and Saul for the work to which He had called them.

*"The Spirit told Philip, "Go to that chariot and stay near it" (Acts 8:29, emphasis added).*

Again, we see that it was the Holy Spirit who spoke and gave directions to Philip.

"But God (referring to the Father) has revealed it to us by his Spirit" (1 Corinthians 2:10a, emphasis and parenthesis added).

God reveals things to us by His Spirit. The Holy Spirit speaks to us and leads us. He reveals to us things that God the Father wants us to know. God the Father and His Spirit are One, just like the Holy Spirit and Jesus are One.

Let's look at some scriptures that tell us more about the Holy Spirit.

Notice in the following scripture reference that the Holy Spirit is our helper and intercedes for us. Also, notice that the Holy Spirit has a mind.

*"In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express. And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit*, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints in accordance with God's will" (Romans 8:26-27, emphasis added).*

It is important to know this so that we will not believe teachers who are proclaiming that the Holy Spirit is only a force, like the wind.

Notice in the following scriptures that the Holy Spirit can be grieved.

"And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God*, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption" (Ephesians 4:30, emphasis added).*

A force cannot be grieved.

Notice in the following scripture that the Holy Spirit is our Teacher and Counsellor.

"But the Counsellor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you" (John 14:26, emphasis added).

A force cannot teach us. A force cannot counsel us.

Notice in the following scripture that the Holy Spirit loves us.

"I urge you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to join me in my struggle by praying to God for me" (Romans 15:30, emphasis added).

There are so many more scriptures that refer to the trinity and prove that Jesus and the Holy Spirit are God. I pray you will see them as you read your Bible.